To be eligible, you must provide all of the following information to the award review committee. Incomplete applications will not be considered for the award.

Please provide the following in your application packet:

- ☐ The completed VCHC Emerging Honors Student of the Year Application Form,
- ☐ an unofficial college transcript,
- ☐ a written recommendation letter from the Honors administrator at the home institution (which must be a current VCHC member),
- ☐ a personal student narrative of no more than 1200 words that addresses the question, "Based on your college experience so far, how have you best contributed to your Honors program and your campus, and how might you apply these learned skills to other aspects of your life?", and
- ☐ a signed copy accepting the terms and conditions of the award.

The recipient of this award will receive registration for the VCHC spring conference, courtesy of the VCHC, a $500 cash prize, and their winning scholarship essay may be included in a future edition of the Proceedings of Virginias Collegiate Honors Council. The recipient will also receive further acknowledgement at the spring conference by addressing their peers on the topic of being a part of an Honors community and what that means to them.

Please submit your completed application packet electronically by sending it as a single PDF file to honors@vchc.net.
